

Program: Legal Histories of Empires 2022

Day 1 – Wednesday, 29 June 2022

8:00-8:40 – Registration – John Hume 1

8:40- 9:00 – Welcome and Housekeeping – Donal Coffey and David Doyle – John Hume 1

9:00-10:30 Session A

	Stream: General Panel: Ireland – the First Plantation Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: People and institutions: New Zealand connections with the British Empire Room: John Hume 3	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Law and Justice in the British Empire Room: John Hume 4	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer I Room: John Hume 6
1:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Lyndsay Campbell	Chair: Lee Godden	Chair: Rohit De	Chair: Christian Bursat
4:00 AM Toronto	Craig Lyons	Michael Littlewood	Nishant Gokhale	Valerie Wallace
4:00 AM Ithaca	Gerald of Wales, John Davies, and the Laws of the Irish in an English Colonial Perspective	Sir George Grey’s Machiavellian Constitutional and Fiscal reforms in Aotearoa New Zealand, 1845-1875	A Bhil Chief in Company India: Legal Fragments of the Life of Goomany Naik (c. 1818–1824)	Scots law and the British Empire: a plea for a new subject
10:00 AM KwaZulu-Natal	Coleman A. Dennehy	Katherine Sanders	Oliver Skinner	Adetola Elizabeth Oyewo
1:30 PM New Delhi	1460 and 1689: Expressions of legislative and judicial independence in colonial Ireland	Appealing to Empire: The Treaty of Waitangi at the Centennial, New Zealand 1940	“It’s about tikanga”: Māori, British law, and Wairarapa Moana in the nineteenth century	Indigenous Legal Systems and Primogeniture In Benin Empire
5:30 PM Adelaide	Donal Coffey	David V Williams	Pooja Parmar	Meenu Deswal
6:00 PM Sydney	The Crown in the Irish Free State: Dominion Status and Its Afterlife	‘Office’ and the colonised in Tanganyika and New Zealand, 1920-1945	Andrew Paull: A lawyer without a ticket and an interpreter of justice	Re-reading Status through Contract: Matrimonial Practices and the Colonial Civil Law in South Asia, 1850-1920
8:00 PM Auckland/Otago

10:30 – 11:00 Morning tea

11:00- 12:30 Session B

	Stream: General Launch: lhearhives.org Legal Histories of Empire collaborative website. New Ways of Sharing for Legal Historians of Empire Room: John Hume 2	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empires Panel: Gender, Indigeneity & Empires Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: Forms of Legal Organisation in Empire Room: John Hume 4	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer II Room: John Hume 6
3:00 AM Vancouver	Shaunnagh Dorsett	Chair: Liz Thornberry	Chair: Lyndsay Campbell	Chair: Catharine MacMillan
6:00 AM Greensboro	Lisa Ford	Penny Edmonds	Kate Stevens	Donald Fyson and Eric Reiter
6:00 AM New York	Rachel Bolton	Emancipation Acts on the Oceanic Frontier? Intimacy, Diplomacy, Colonial Invasion and the Legal Traces of	Laughing at law? The limits of humour as critique of Anglo-French legal colonialism in Vanuatu	Fatal Transplant: Lord Campbell’s Act and Fatal Accident Litigation in Upper and Lower Canada, 1847-60
6:00 AM Montreal

7:00 AM Buenos Aires		‘Protection’ in the Bass Strait World, 1832
7:00 AM Fredericton		Kate McGregor	Melike Batgiray Abboud	Martin O’Donoghue
11:00 AM Lagos		‘There is only one way to be pretty!’ Racialized Beauty Norms in German South West Africa, 1894-1906’	Political Crime in Colonial Sudan: The Rule of the Two Empires (1899-1915)	Minority Representation but with a colonial model: The creation of the Irish senate in imperial perspective.
12:00 PM Valetta
3:30 PM New Delhi
7:30 PM Adelaide		Aurelie Bouvart	Ron Harris	Yuan Yi Zhu
8:00 PM Sydney		Women and Colonial Justice in Late-Colonial Central Africa: Native women’s alcohol transgressions before the Criminal Courts of Belgian Congo (1940s-1950s)	Empire Ltd: The First Globalization, the Expansion of Company Law to the British Empire, and the Emergence of the Multinational Corporation	The Chinese Habeas Corpus: Legal Transfers and the Limits of the Common Law World

12:30– 1:30 Lunch

1:30– 3:30 Session C

	Stream: General Panel: In and Between Empires: Transplants and Circulations Room: John Hume 1	Stream: General Panel: Negotiated Legal Spaces Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Imperial Categories: Constituting Subjects and Citizens Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: Colonial Imaginings and the Normative Regimes Concerning Land (19 th – early 20 th C) Room: John Hume 4	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Land, Law, and Spatial Justice in the Former British Empire Room: John Hume 6
5:30 AM Vancouver	Chair: Sandy Kedar	Chair: Grietje Baars	Chair: Preet Aulakh	Chair: David Schorr	Chair: Amy Strecker
6:30 AM Calgary	Christopher Roberts and Hazel Leung The Importation, Reception and Evolution of Vagrancy Laws in Hong Kong	Robert Hamilton Resisting and Extending Empire: How the Acadian people shaped British and French imperial rule through the strategic use of law	Fatima-Ezzahrae Touilila “ The Caliphate question ”: archive of a disruption into the legal imperial order (1914-1926)	Elisabetta Fiocchi Malaspina The Institut Colonial International on land law and land registration systems (1898-1905)	Amanda Byer Reserving space: land, nature, and empire in the development of Commonwealth Caribbean environmental law
7:30 AM Dallas
7:30 AM Columbia, MO	Manav Kapur The many afterlives of a ‘satanic law’: the transplantation of India and Pakistan’s evacuee property regime	Dries Lyna Uncodified customs: Dutch civil courts and cross examinations in 18th-century Sri Lanka	Larissa Kopytoff ‘Seeking to return home from the hajj’: The repatriation of colonial subjects across imperial boundaries	Admire Mseba Imagining Traditions, Making Authority: Discourses and Practices of African Customary Landholding and their Implications for Power Relations in the Reserves of Early Colonial Northeastern Zimbabwe, 1890-c.1937	Sinéad Mercier Landscape or Landscape? Finding space for the Irish fairyfort
7:30 AM Urbana
8:30 AM New York
8:30 AM Princeton, NJ
8:30 AM Tampa
8:30 AM Trinidad and Tobago
9:30 AM Rio de Janeiro
3:30 PM Amman
3:30 PM Tel Aviv
6:00 PM New Delhi

8:30 PM Hong Kong	Naveen Kanalu	Rafael Mateus	Orna Alyagon Darr	Inge van Hulle	Sonya Cotton
8:30 PM Singapore	Hanafi Idioms of Law: Transregional Legal Mobilities between the Gunpowder Empires (c. 1670-1700)	Order of Grace and Land Concessions in the Captaincy of Siará, XVII Century	'Special Treatment' of European Prisoners in Mandate Palestine	Horror Vacui: Colonial Cartography and the Notion of Emptiness in Title to Territory and Colonial Land Law	Anxious pluralisms and communal land in Anglophone southern Africa
	Nuño Camarinhas	Christopher Fritsch		Nurfadzilah Yahaya	Raphael Ng'etich
	Justice on the move: mapping the Portuguese colonial judiciary in the longue durée (1550-1910)	Between Town and Empire: Administrative Law in Colonial America		The Role of the Foreshore in Land Reclamation	Competing Notions of Land in Colonial Kenya and Impact on Present-Day Land Governance

3:30 – 4:00 Afternoon Tea

4:00 – 5:30 Session D

	Stream: General Panel: Thinking with 'Empire' Room: John Hume 2	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Encounters of Law Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: Race in Empire Room: John Hume 4	Stream: General Panel: An Empire State of Mind? Legal Transfer Between the United States and its Colonized Peoples Room: John Hume 6
8:00 AM Los Angeles	Chair: Matteo Nicolini	Chair: Robert Hamilton	Chair: Michael Lobban	Chair: Scott Carrière
8:00 AM Vancouver	Francisco Lobo	Krista Barclay	Thomas Day	Sam Erman
10:00 AM Chicago	Empire strikes back: Comparative notes on evolving conceptions of Western imperialism	Imperial Intersections: Family, Indigeneity and Inheritance Law in British North America	Crafting Racial Citizenship during Imperial Conflict: Liminal Black Citizenship in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania	Status Manipulation, Spectral Sovereignty, and the Self-Preservation of Empire
10:00 AM Urbana
11:00 AM Ottawa
11:00 AM Toronto	Ibrahim Khan	Genevieve Renard Painter	Lenny Hodges	Christina D. Ponsa-Kraus
11:00 AM Santiago	Managing the Decline of Empires: International Law and the Regulation of War	Constituting Canada: Patriation as a Settler - Indigenous Legal Encounter	The Code Noir in Bengal: Slavery, Race, and the French Imperial Constitution in the Eighteenth Century	Empire by Gaslight: U.S. Constitutionalism in Puerto Rico
4:00 PM Lagos
8:30 PM New Delhi
1:00 AM Sydney (30 June)	Olindo de Napoli		Jack Jin Gary Lee	Erin Delaney Beth Redbird Sarah Sadlier
3:00 AM Auckland (30 June)	The French Connection: Politics and justice in the Italian colonies of East Africa and the French model (1890-1936)		Anxieties of Whiteness: Evidence, Race, and the Prosecution of the Malayan "Sexual Perversion" Cases, 1938-1940	The IRA Constitutions: Co-option, coercion, or self-determination?

5:30 Drinks and Welcome

7:00 PM Plenary - Anglicisation of and through law in British America, Ireland, and India, c.1550-1800

Chair: Emeritus Professor John McLaren, Faculty of Law, University of Victoria, Canada

Jane Ohlmeyer, Erasmus Smith's Professor of Modern History, Trinity College Dublin

Richard J Ross, David C. Baum Professor of Law and Professor of History, University of Illinois

Philip Stern, Associate Professor of History, Duke University

Room: John Hume 1

Day 2 – Thursday, 30 June 2022

9:00 – 11:00 – Session E

	Stream: General Panel: People, Texts, Ideas in Empire Room: John Hume 1	Stream: General Panel: Law, Personhood and Racial Capitalism in the History of Empire Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Legal Pluralism in Colonial and Pre-colonial South Asia Room: John Hume 3	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legacies of Empire: Roman-Dutch Law in South Africa and Sri Lanka in Historical Context Room: John Hume 4	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime I Room: John Hume 6
1:00 AM Vancouver 4:00 AM Santiago 4:00 AM Toronto 4:00 AM Washington DC 9:00 AM Lagos 10:00 AM Cairo 11:00 AM Tel Aviv 1:30 PM New Delhi 5:00 PM Seoul 6:00 PM Melbourne 6:00 PM Sydney 8:00 PM Wellington	Chair: Han-Ru Zhou Seán Patrick Donlan and David Zammit Divisions, Subdivisions, and Distinctions: Sir John Stoddart, Malta, and Empire's Law Geetanjali Srikantan Race, Religion and Indian Constitutionalism in the Legal Thought of Arthur Berriedale Keith Sugata Nandi Empire over Law: Charles Tegart and Colonial Policing, 1901-1931 Lee Godden Pandemics, Law and Movement Controls at the Edges of Empire	Chair: Matilde Cazzola Grietje Baars The Making of the Corporate Legal Form in the Colonial Encounter Vanja Hamzić Labours in Time and Subjectivity: Gender Nonconformity, Law and Racial Capitalism in the Making of Eighteenth-Century New Orleans Edward Jones Corredera Corporations, Race, and Legal Reform in Eighteenth-Century Venezuela Mikki Stelder The Conquest of Maritime Imagination: Hugo Grotius, Colonial Innocence and International Law	Chair: Aparna Balachandran Aparna Balachandran Catholics and Others: Religion and Legal Pluralism in Early Colonial Madras Rachna Singh Universal templates, local renditions: Feeding prisoners in the colonial jails of the 1840s Anubhuti Maurya The Curious Incident of Yusuf Aindar: Contesting Orders of Justice and Politics in Early Modern Kashmir Yasser Arafath Community and Jurisprudence in Malabar, 1500-1600: A Reading of Fath-ul-Muin	Chair: Hector MacQueen Paul du Plessis Once More on Roman-Dutch Law Helen Scott Iniuria in Sri Lanka and South Africa: Convergence and Divergence Rohan Edrisinha and Tavini Nanayakkara The Roman Dutch Law in Sri Lanka: Common Law or Anachronism? Asanga Welikala RDL, Economic Democratisation, and Constitutional Development: A Comparative Study of the Fideicommissum in South Africa and Sri Lanka	Chair: Diane Kirkby Bevan Marten The High Court of Admiralty: Paying Lip Service to the Law of Nations David Goodwin How Torres Strait Shipping Shaped Queensland's Aboriginal Protection Legislation Dean Broughton Illegal in the Empire 1945-1970: British Seafarers as Illegal Immigrants in New Zealand 1945 – 1970 Jeremy Young Legal limits to maritime labour in France and Britain in the second half of the 18 th Century

11:00-11:30 Morning Tea

11:30 – 1:00 Session F

	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empires Panel: Indigenous Subjects of Empire	Stream: General Panel: Women and Gender in Empire Room: John Hume 3	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer III Room: John Hume 4	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime II Room: John Hume 6
--	--	--	---	---

	Room: John Hume 2
3:30 AM Vancouver	Chair: Pooja Parmar	Chair: Orna Alyagon Darr	Chair: Catharine MacMillan	Chair: Tomas Nilson
6:30 AM Toronto	Nandini Ramachandran	Penny Sinanoglou	Matilde Cazzola	Damien Cremean and Aldo Paciocco
11:30 AM Lagos	Dalit Dkhar: Belonging and Recognition in a Shillong Slum	Child Brides and Imperial Stability: Languages of Risk in the Debate over the Age of Consent and Child Marriage, 1890-1930	Philanthropy on the edges of empire: Edward Eyre Protector of Aborigines (South Australia, 1841-44)	Liens for Seafarers' Wages
1:30 AM Bucharest
1:30 PM Tel Aviv
4:00 PM New Delhi
6:30 Hong Kong	Amanda Nettelbeck	Thais Gendry and Stacey Hynd	David Schorr	Diane Kirkby
8:00 PM Adelaide	Precarious subjects: Between British and Indigenous jurisdiction in the settler colony	White Men's Mercy: Gender, Race and Capital Sentencing under British and French Colonial Rule in Africa, c.1920-40s	Questioning "Anglicisation": Class, Codification and the Common Law in Two Former Ottoman Colonies	Seafarers refusing 'coolie standards' on British ships
8:30 PM Sydney
10:30 PM Auckland
	Reeju Ray	Elizabeth Bowyer	Arlie Loughnan	Anjali Webster
	Contesting Boundaries and Settling Jurisdiction in Colonial Frontiers	Binding Engagements on the Edge of the British Empire: Women and contracts under the law in settler colonial New Zealand	Making Modern Criminal Law in the Context of the British Empire	Border making on the edge of Empire: The English Claim to Delagoa Bay in the nineteenth century

1:00-2:00 Lunch

2:00 – 3:30 Session G

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime III Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Emergency Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Author-Meets-Reader Room: John Hume 4	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer IV Room: John Hume 6
6:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Stefan Vogenauer	Chair: Nishant Gokhale	Michael Lobban, Imperial Incarceration: Detention without Trial in the Making of British Colonial Africa (CUP, 2021)	Chair: Ron Harris
7:00 AM Calgary	James P. Barry	Tyler Wentzell	Readers: Stacey Hynd Thomas Mohr Tim Soriano Inge van Hulle	Margaret O'Riordan Ross
9:00 AM Atlanta	An Analysis of John Reeves's History of the Law of Shipping and Navigation	Merging the Militias: Adaptation and Exclusion in Early Canada		Canadian Prostitution Law and Colonial Legal Transfer
9:00 AM Boston
9:00 AM Santiago	Liz Rushen	Michael Samuel		Preet Aulakh
9:00 AM Toronto	John Marshall and the reformation of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping	Illicit Import: The Artful Incorporation of the Defence (Emergency) Regulations, 1945 into the Israeli Legal System		Inter-Colony Analogies and the Institutionalization of Peasant Proprietorship from Punjab to Prince Edward Island, 1868-1875
6:30 PM New Delhi
11:00 PM Melbourne
1:00 AM Auckland (1 July)	Kirsten Sellars			Arudra Burra
	Islands' maritime zones — colonialism's last gasp within the law of the sea			Colonial Constitutions and Legal Memory: The Fate of habeas corpus in independent India

3:30-4:00 Afternoon Tea

4:00-5:30 Session H

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime IV Room: John Hume 2	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Positioning Intellectual Property in North America: Crossing Boundaries from the British to US Empires Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: The Third Empire: Africa Room: John Hume 4	Stream: General Panel: Institutions and the Commercial World of Empire Room: John Hume 6
8:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Anjuli Webster	Chair: Isabella Alexander	Chair: Inge van Hulle	Chair: Shaunnagh Dorsett
9:00 AM Calgary	Tomas Nilson	Nora Slonimsky	Narcisse Kaze	Christian Buset
11:00 AM Boston	'To be saved from oneself': The Consular Service, the Seamans' s Mission and the Welfare of Swedish Seafarers in Foreign Ports, 1925-1935	'None Must Be Sent For Sale to America': Copies, Rights, and Maps of Subjecthood in the British Empire, 1755-1776	The Process of Kingdom/Fondom Formation in Pre-colonial Bamenda Grassfields of Cameroon c. 1800-1884	Arbitration and Empire: Bengal and British North America, 1763-1775
11:00 AM South Bend
11:00 AM Toronto
4:00 PM Lagos	Tim Soriano	Kara W Swanson	Paulien Broens	Scott Carrière
4:00 PM Yaoundé	'His Majesty's Ponds': Salt and British Rule in the Turks and Caicos Islands, 1760-1770	Race, Inventors, and Citizens along the Republic of Texas Border, 1836-1846	The imposed masculinization of legal power with the Akan in Ghana under British colonial force, c. 1890 – 1920	Newfoundland's Customary Constitutionalism in the Age of Company Colonialism
8:30 PM New Delhi
1:00 AM Sydney (1 July)	Stefan Vogenauer	Haris A Durrani	Yolanda Osondu	Lyndsay Campbell
3:00 AM Auckland (1 July)	Creating a Legal Order in a Colonial Setting: the Dutch Colonies in Guyana	The Recent History of Free Space: Patents, Satellites, and the Idea of Empire in the Global Cold War	The 'Price' of War: The Punishment of Female Profiteers in Colonial Southern Nigeria (1941-1947)	Constituting a Colonial Crisis: Newfoundland in the 1830s

Day 3 – Friday, 1 July 2022

9:00-10:30 Session I

	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Commerce, Empire and Intellectual Property Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Legal Thought and Constitutionalism Room: John Hume 3	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Nations and Empires Room: John Hume 4	Stream: General Panel: The Social and Political Histories of Forensic Science in the British Empire Room: John Hume 6
1:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Tomas Gomez-Arostegui	Chair: Serge Dauchy	Chair: Katherine Sanders	Chair: Mitra Sharafi
4:00 AM Boston	Michael Birnhack	Nik Kedar	Miranda Johnson	Catherine Evans
4:00 AM Ottawa	The Emergence of a Brand: A Case of Jaffa Oranges from Mandate Palestine	The Russian Imperial Roots of Israeli Civicism and Rule of Law	Threshold states: Indigeneity and Colonial Imperialism in the South Pacific	Investigating Incendiarism in Nineteenth-Century Canada
4:00 AM Santiago
9:00 AM Lagos	Fady Aoun	Avarim Shahal	Coel Kirkby	Heather Wolfram
11:00 AM Tel Aviv	Tobacco Empires as Agents of Empire: Reconceptualising Corporate Empires within Sovereign Empires	Empirically Tested: Multinational Empires and Zionist Constitutional Thought	Disenfranchisement and the Reconstitution in the British Empire, c.1884-1900	Cairo's Medico-Legal laboratory during the Inter-War Period
1:30 PM New Delhi
5:30 PM Adelaide
6:00 PM Sydney	Isabella Alexander	Assaf Likhovski	Mark D. Walters	Binyamin Blum
8:00 PM Auckland	Copyright, Nature and Empire in Cook's Voyages	Jurisprudence in the British Empire: India, Egypt and Palestine Compared	The Covenant Chain Treaty Relationship and Criminal Justice on the Edges of Settled Canada, 1760-1800	The Ceylon Police Footprint Bureau: The Untold History of a Forgotten Forensic Science

10:30-11:00 Morning Tea

11:00 – 12:30 Session J

	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Colonial Governance, Courts & Indigenous Subjects Room: John Hume 2	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Disrupting Colonial Narratives Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: Trans-imperial Connections Room: John Hume 4	Stream: General Panel: Lawful Space and Place Room: John Hume 6
3:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Reeju Ray	Chair: Kathy Bowrey	Chair: Shaunnagh Dorsett	Chair: Lee Godden
6:00 AM Boston	Nikita Sonavane	Jessica Lake	Angela Smith	Matteo Nicolini
6:00 AM Hartford	Informants of colonial criminality: The legacy of Criminal Tribes Act in contemporary India	'This is a legal joke that finds no parallel outside of the British Empire': The sexual slander of women in the 19 th century common law world	Aviation Empire: a legal history of friendship and flying at the end of empire	Manufacturing Imperial Spatialities: The British Integrated Legal Geography of Land and Sea
6:00 AM Santiago
6:00 AM Toronto

6:00 West Lafayette 11:00 AM Lagos 3:30 PM New Delhi 8:00 PM Melbourne 10:00 PM Dunedin	David Plater (with Andy Alexander) ‘Virtually Outlaws in their Native Land which they have never Alienated or Forfeited’: the ‘Incompetence’ of Aboriginal Witnesses in 19th Century Colonial Australia	Andrea Wallace “Another Perspective” of Digital Surrogates in the Public Domain: what Pornhub and the Classic Nudes project can tell us about the empire of copyright	Lama El Sharief The Role of Passports in Connecting Spaces and Expanding Empires	Erin Braatz Constructing Colonial Space
	Jacqueline Briggs Networks of Colonial Governance: Department of Indian Affairs legal aid, 1870 to 1970	Nandi Bhatia Literary-Cultural Surveillance in British India and Beyond	Sarah Winter Writs Crossing Borders: Transimperial Habeas Corpus and the History of Human Rights	David Smith The Early Modern Tax Haven: Smuggling, Law and Global Business in Eighteenth-century Jersey and Guernsey

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch

1:30-3:00 Session K

	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Regulating ideas and texts: origins, transplants and translations Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Writing Constitutions Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: Transcending Borders Room: John Hume 4	Stream: General Panel: Israeli regimes of citizenship, immigration, enemies and space in comparative perspectives Room: John Hume 6
5:30 AM Vancouver	Chair: Andrea Wallace	Chair: Lisa Cowan	Chair: Seán Patrick Donlan	Chair: Mark D Walters
8:30 AM Cambridge, Mass 8:30 AM New Haven 8:30 AM Santiago 8:30 AM Toronto 3:30 Tel Aviv	Tomas Gomez-Arostegui Patent-Infringement Litigation in 18th Century England and the Right to a Jury Trial	Alex Martinborough Settler Constitution-Writing on the Edges of Empire	Oksana Ermolaeva Re-creating an Imperial Border: Postrevolutionary Transformations in the Legal Regimes in Theory and on Practice (The Case of the Soviet-Finnish Border, 1920-1929)	Alexandre (Sandy) Kedar The Israeli Supreme Court and Appeal Committee in the OPT in Comparison with the U.S. Supreme Court and the Indian Claims Commission
6:00 PM New Delhi 10:30 PM Sydney 12:30 AM Auckland (2 July)	Kathy Bowrey Patents, Aboriginal Invention & Settler Colonial Myth-making	Rohit De and Ornit Shani From Founding to Assembling: Towards a New History of India’s Constitution Making	Thomas Gidney Negotiating the End of Extraterritoriality 1919-1945	Smadar Ben-Natan The Dual Penal Empire: Emergency Powers and Military Courts in Palestine/Israel and Beyond
		Shaunnagh Dorsett Reshaping Empire: The Eastern Commission of Inquiry, Curial Reform and Drafting Ceylon’s 1833 Charter of Justice	Jim Phillips Separation and Divorce in a Federal Dominion: The Campbell Cases, Canada, 1873-1879	Yael Berda Citizenship as a mobility regime: How colonial emergency laws made citizenship in the aftermath of the British Empire in Israel/Palestine and India

--	--	--	--	--

3:00 – grab and coffee and come back

3:10-4:40 Session L

	Stream: General Panel: Books and Circulations of Knowledge Room: John Hume 2	Stream: General Panel: Subjects of Empire Room: John Hume 3	Stream: General Panel: War and Intervention Room: John Hume 4
7:10 AM Vancouver	Chair: Shaunnagh Dorsett	Chair: Catherine Evans	Chair: Wafa Ben Mahmoud
7:10 AM Seattle	Serge Dauchy	Mary Anne Vallianatos	Mandi Rollinson
9:10 AM Chicago	Interconnecting legal Empires in the Americas through the circulation of legal books (17 th -18 th centuries)	Canada's Anti-Asian laws: A History of Exception, Race, and Empire, 1885-1949	The Ties That Bind: A Case Study of the United Nations and Colonial Rule in 1950's Rwanda
10:10 AM New York
10:10 AM Santiago
4:10 PM Rome	Airton Ribeiro da Silva Jr	David Doyle	Eric Covey
5:10 PM Tel Aviv	Comparing colonial law libraries: the circulation of normative knowledge in Iberian empires	Unlawful Carnal Knowledge in the Irish Free State, 1922-33	Postcolonial Nigerian Governments, Cold War Empires, and Mercenary Force at the United Nations, 1979 to 1989
7:40 PM New Delhi	Sergio Peña Neira	Philip Girard
	Influence of English law and international law of English learned scholars in Chile: Andres Bello	On the edge of many empires: employers' liability in Quebec's industrial age, 1880-1930

4:45 Close – Lyndsay Campbell

John Hume 1