

Program: Legal Histories of Empires 2022

Day 1 – 29 June 2022

8:00-8:40 - Registration

8:40- 9:00 – Welcome and Housekeeping

9:00-10:30 Session A

	Stream: General Panel: Ireland – the First Plantation	Stream: General Panel: People and institutions: New Zealand connections with the British Empire	Stream: General Panel: Condominia	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer I
1:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Lyndsay Campbell	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:
4:00 AM Toronto	Craig Lyons	Michael Littlewood	Cait Storr	Valerie Wallace
4:00 AM Ithaca	Gerald of Wales, John Davies, and the Laws of the Irish in an English Colonial Perspective	Sir George Grey’s Machiavellian Constitutional and Fiscal reforms in Aotearoa New Zealand, 1845-1875	Condominium: Between Inter-Imperial Détente and International Administration	Scots law and the British Empire: a plea for a new subject
10:00 AM KwaZulu-Natal
1:30 PM New Delhi	Coleman A. Dennehy	Katherine Sanders	Kate Stevens	Adetola Oyewo
5:30 PM Adelaide	1460 and 1689: Expressions of legislative and judicial independence in colonial Ireland	Appealing to Empire: The Treaty of Waitangi at the Centennial, New Zealand 1940	Laughing at law? The limits of humour as critique of Anglo-French legal colonialism in Vanuatu	Indigenous Legal Systems and Primogeniture In Benin Empire
6:00 PM Sydney
8:00 PM Auckland	Donal Coffey	David V Williams	Melike Batgiray Abboud	Meenu Deswal
	The Crown in the Irish Free State: Dominion Status and Its Afterlife	‘Office’ and the colonised in Tanganyika and New Zealand, 1920-1945	Political Crime in Colonial Sudan: The Rule of the Two Empires (1899-1915)	Re-reading Status through Contract: Matrimonial Practices and the Colonial Civil Law in South Asia, 1850-1920

10:30 – 11:00 Morning tea

11:00- 12:30 Session B

	Stream: General Panel: People, Texts, Ideas in Empire	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empires Panel: Gender, Indigeneity & Empires	Stream: General Panel: Women and Gender in Empire	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer II
3:00 AM Vancouver	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:
6:00 AM Greensboro 6:00 New York 6:00 AM Montreal 7:00 AM Buenos Aires	Geoff McLay Local Circumstances, Imperial common law, and the making of a new country: Robert Stout the invention of New Zealand Common law	Penny Edmonds Emancipation Acts on the Oceanic Frontier? Intimacy, Diplomacy, Colonial Invasion and the Legal Traces of ‘Protection’ in the Bass Strait World, 1832	Penny Sinanoglou Child Brides and Imperial Stability: Languages of Risk in the Debate over the Age of Consent and Child Marriage, 1890-1930	Donald Fyson and Eric Reiter Fatal Transplant: Lord Campbell’s Act and Fatal Accident Litigation in Upper and Lower Canada, 1847-60
7:00 AM Fredericton 11:00 AM Lagos 12:00 PM Valetta 3:30 PM New Delhi 7:30 PM Adelaide	Seán Patrick Donlan and David Zammit Divisions, Subdivisions, and Distinctions: Sir John Stoddart, Malta, and Empire’s Law	Kate McGregor ‘There is only one way to be pretty!’ Racialized Beauty Norms in German South West Africa, 1894-1906’	Thaïs Gendry and Stacey Hynd White Men’s Mercy: Gender, Race and Capital Sentencing under British and French Colonial Rule in Africa, c.1920-40s	Martin O’Donoghue Minority Representation but with a colonial model: The creation of the Irish senate in imperial perspective.
10:00 PM Wellington	Geetanjali Srikantan Race, Religion and Indian Constitutionalism in the Legal Thought of Arthur Berriedale Keith	Aurelie Bouvart Women and Colonial Justice in Late-Colonial Central Africa: Native women’s alcohol transgressions before the Criminal Courts of Belgian Congo (1940s-1950s)	Elizabeth Bowyer Binding Engagements on the Edge of the British Empire: Women and contracts under the law in settler colonial New Zealand	Andra Burra Colonial Constitutions and Legal Memory: The Fate of habeas corpus in independent India (online)

12:30– 1:30 Lunch

1:30– 3:30 Session C

	Stream: General Panel: In and Between Empires: Transplants and Circulations	Stream: General Panel: Negotiated Legal Spaces	Stream: General Panel: Imperial Categories: Constituting Subjects and Citizens	Stream: General Panel: Colonial Imaginings and the Normative Regimes Concerning Land (19 th – early 20 th C)	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Land, Law, and Spatial Justice in the Former British Empire
5:30 AM Vancouver	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair: Amy Strecker
6:30 AM Calgary 7:30 AM Dallas 7:30 AM Missouri 7:30 AM Urbana 8:30 AM New York	Christopher Roberts and Hazel Leung The Importation, Reception and Evolution of Vagrancy Laws in Hong Kong	Christopher Fritsch Between Town and Empire: Administrative Law in Colonial America	Fatima-Ezzahrae Touilila “ The Caliphate question ”: archive of a disruption into the legal imperial order (1914-1926)	Elisabetta Fiocchi Malaspina The Institut Colonial International on land law and land registration systems (1898-1905)	Amanda Byer Reserving space: land, nature, and empire in the development of Commonwealth Caribbean environmental law
8:30 AM Princeton, NJ 8:30 AM Tampa 8:30 AM Trinidad and Tobago 9:30 AM Rio de Janeiro 3:30 PM Amman 3:30 PM Tel Aviv	Manav Kapur The many afterlives of a ‘satanic law’: the transplantation of India and Pakistan’s evacuee property regime	Robert Hamilton Resisting and Extending Empire: How the Acadian people shaped British and French imperial rule through the strategic use of law	Larissa Kopytoff ‘Seeking to return home from the hajj’: The repatriation of colonial subjects across imperial boundaries	Admire Mseba Imagining Traditions, Making Authority: Discourses and Practices of African Customary Landholding and their Implications for Power Relations in the Reserves of Early Colonial Northeastern Zimbabwe, 1890-c.1937	Sinéad Mercier Landscape or Landscape? Finding space for the Irish fairyfort
6:00 PM New Delhi	Naveen Kanalu Hanafi Idioms of Law: Transregional Legal	Dries Lyna Uncodified customs: Dutch civil courts and	Raul Cârstocea Seeing Like an Empire: The Imperial	Inge van Hulle Horror Vacui: Colonial Cartography and the	Sonya Cotton Anxious pluralisms and communal land in

8:30 PM Hong Kong 8:30 PM Singapore 10:30 PM Sydney	Mobilities between the Gunpowder Empires (c. 1670-1700)	cross examinations in 18th-century Sri Lanka	Imagination and the Boundaries of Citizenship in 19 th Century Romania	Notion of Emptiness in Title to Territory and Colonial Land Law	Anglophone southern Africa
	Nuño Camarinhas Justice on the move: mapping the Portuguese colonial judiciary in the longue durée (1550-1910)	Rafael Mateus Order of Grace and Land Concessions in the Captaincy of Siará, XVII Century	Orna Alyagon Darr 'Special Treatment' of European Prisoners in Mandate Palestine	Nurfadzilah Yahaya The Role of the Foreshore in Land Reclamation	Raphael Ng'etich Competing Notions of Land in Colonial Kenya and Impact on Present-Day Land Governance

3:30 – 4:00 Afternoon Tea

4:00 – 5:30 Session D

	Stream: General Panel: Thinking with 'Empire'	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Encounters of Law	Stream: General Panel: Race in Empire	Stream: General Panel: An Empire State of Mind? Legal Transfer Between the United States and its Colonized Peoples
1:00 AM Sydney	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair: Scott Carrière
3:00 AM Auckland 8:00 AM Los Angeles 8:00 AM Vancouver 10:00 AM Chicago 10:00 AM Urbana	Francisco Lobo Empire strikes back: Comparative notes on evolving conceptions of Western imperialism	Krista Barclay Imperial Intersections: Family, Indigeneity and Inheritance Law in British North America	Thomas Day Crafting Racial Citizenship during Imperial Conflict: Liminal Black Citizenship in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania	Sam Erman Status Manipulation, Spectral Sovereignty, and the Self-Preservation of Empire

11:00 AM Ottawa	Ibrahim Khan	Genevieve Renard Painter	Lenny Hodges	Christina D. Ponsa-Kraus
11:00 AM Toronto	Managing the Decline of Empires: International Law and the Regulation of War	Constituting Canada: Patriation as a Settler - Indigenous Legal Encounter	The Code Noir in Bengal: Slavery, Race, and the French Imperial Constitution in the Eighteenth Century	Empire by Gaslight: U.S. Constitutionalism in Puerto Rico
11:00 AM Santiago
4:00 PM Lagos
8:30 PM New Delhi
	Olindo de Napoli	Michael Borsk	Constance Backhouse	Erin Delaney Beth Redbird Sarah Sadlier
	The French Connection: Politics and justice in the Italian colonies of East Africa and the French model (1890-1936)	Belts and Chains: Mapping the Meeting of Law in the Great Lakes Region, 1783-1840	Race Bias on the Edge of Empire: RDS v. The Queen at the Supreme Court of Canada	The IRA Constitutions: Co-option, coercion, or self-determination?

5:30 Drinks and Welcome

7:00 PM Plenary - Anglicisation of and through law in British America, Ireland, and India, c.1550-1800

Chair: Emeritus Professor John McLaren

Jane Ohlmeyer, Erasmus Smith's Professor of Modern History, Trinity College Dublin

Richard J Ross, David C. Baum Professor of Law and Professor of History, University of Illinois

Philip Stern, Associate Professor of History, Duke University

Day 2 – 30 June

9:00 – 11:00 – Session E

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime I	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Nations and Empires	Stream: General Panel: Law, Personhood and Racial Capitalism in the History of Empire	Stream: General Panel: Legal Pluralism in Colonial and Pre-colonial South Asia	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legacies of Empire: Roman-Dutch Law in South Africa and Sri Lanka in Historical Context
1:00 AM Vancouver	Chair: Diane Kirkby	Chair:	Chair:	Chair: Aparna Balachandran	Chair: Hector MacQueen
4:00 AM Santiago	Bevan Marten	Miranda Johnson	Grietje Baars	Aparna Balachandran	Paul du Plessis
4:00 AM Toronto	The High Court of Admiralty: Paying Lip Service to the Law of Nations	Threshold states: Indigeneity and Colonial Imperialism in the South Pacific	The Making of the Corporate Legal Form in the Colonial Encounter	Catholics and Others: Religion and Legal Pluralism in Early Colonial Madras	Once More on Roman-Dutch Law
4:00 AM Washington DC
9:00 AM Lagos
10:00 AM Cairo	David Goodwin	Mark D. Walters	Vanja Hamzić	Rachna Singh	Helen Scott
11:00 AM Tel Aviv	How Torres Strait Shipping Shaped Queensland's Aboriginal Protection Legislation	The Covenant Chain Treaty Relationship and Criminal Justice on the Edges of Settled Canada, 1760-1800	Labours in Time and Subjectivity: Gender Nonconformity, Law and Racial Capitalism in the Making of Eighteenth-Century New Orleans	Universal templates, local renditions: Feeding prisoners in the colonial jails of the 1840s	Iniuria in Sri Lanka and South Africa: Convergence and Divergence
1:30 PM New Delhi
5:00 PM Seoul
6:00 PM Melbourne
6:00 PM Sydney
8:00 PM Wellington	Dean Broughton	Coel Kirkby	Edward Jones Corredera	Anubhuti Maurya	Rohan Edrisinha and Tavini Nanayakkara
8:00 PM Dunedin	Illegal in the Empire 1945-1970: British Seafarers as Illegal	Disenfranchisement and the Reconstitution in the	Corporations, Race, and Legal Reform in	The Curious Incident of Yusuf Aindar: Contesting Orders of

	Immigrants in New Zealand 1945 – 1970	British Empire, c.1884-1900	Eighteenth-Century Venezuela	Justice and Politics in Early Modern Kashmir	The Roman Dutch Law in Sri Lanka: Common Law or Anachronism?
	Jeremy Young Legal limits to maritime labour in France and Britain in the second half of the 18th Century	Dilyara Agisheva Local Law and Colonial Empire: Entangled legal practices and the Russian annexation of Crimea	Mikki Stelder The Conquest of Maritime Imagination: Hugo Grotius, Colonial Innocence and International Law	Yasser Arafath Community and Jurisprudence in Malabar, 1500-1600: A Reading of Fath-ul-Muin	Asanga Welikala RDL, Economic Democratisation, and Constitutional Development: A Comparative Study of the Fideicommissum in South Africa and Sri Lanka

11:00-11:30 Morning Tea

11:30 – 1:00 Session F

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime II	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empires Panel: Indigenous Subjects of Empire	Stream: General Panel: Transcending Borders	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer III
3:30 AM Vancouver	Chair: Tomas Nilson	Chair: Pooja Parmar	Chair:	Chair:
6:30 AM Toronto	Damien Cremean and Aldo Paciocco	Nandini Ramachandran	Oksana Ermolaeva	Matilde Cazzola
11:30 AM Lagos	Liens for Seafarers' Wages	Dalit Dkhar: Belonging and Recognition in a Shillong Slum	Re-creating an Imperial Border: Postrevolutionary Transformations in the Legal Regimes in Theory and on Practice (The Case of the Soviet-Finnish Border, 1920-1929)	Philanthropy on the edges of empire: Edward Eyre Protector of Aborigines (South Australia, 1841-44)
1:30 AM Bucharest
1:30 PM Tel Aviv

4:00 PM New Delhi	Diane Kirkby	Amanda Nettelbeck	Thomas Gidney	David Schorr
6:30 Hong Kong	Seafarers refusing ‘coolie standards’ on British ships	Precarious subjects: Between British and Indigenous jurisdiction in the settler colony	Negotiating the End of Extraterritoriality 1919-1945	Questioning “Anglicisation”: Class, Codification and the Common Law in Two Former Ottoman Colonies
8:00 PM Adelaide
8:30 PM Sydney
10:30 PM Auckland	Anjali Webster	Reeju Ray	Steven Gallagher	Arlie Loughnan
	Border making on the edge of Empire: The English Claim to Delagoa Bay in the nineteenth century	Contesting Boundaries and Settling Jurisdiction in Colonial Frontiers	The Legal Legacy of Extending the Colony of Hong Kong into the ‘Unruly New Territories’	Making Modern Criminal Law in the Context of the British Empire

1:00-2:00 Lunch

2:00 – 3:30 Session G

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime III	Stream: General Panel: Emergency	Stream: General Author-Meets-Reader Michael Lobban, Imperial Incarceration: Detention without Trial in the Making of British Colonial Africa (CUP, 2021)	Stream: Legal Transfer in the Common Law World Panel: Legal Transfer IV
1:00 AM Auckland	Chair: Stefan Vogenauer	Chair:	Author:	Chair:
6:00 AM Vancouver	James P. Barry	Tyler Wentzell	Michael Lobban	Margaret O’Riordan Ross
7:00 AM Calgary	An Analysis of John Reeves’s History of the Law of Shipping and Navigation	Merging the Militias: Adaptation and Exclusion in Early Canada	Readers: Stacey Hynd	Canadian Prostitution Law and Colonial Legal Transfer
9:00 AM Atlanta			Thomas Mohr
9:00 AM Boston	Liz Rushen	Lia Brazil		Preet Aulakh

9:00 AM Santiago 9:00 AM Toronto 6:30 PM New Delhi 11:00 PM Melbourne	John Marshall and the reformation of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping	Martial law in the British Empire: Temporal and Spatial	Tim Soriano Inge van Hulle	Inter-Colony Analogies and the Institutionalization of Peasant Proprietorship from Punjab to Prince Edward Island, 1868-1875
	Kirsten Sellars Islands' maritime zones — colonialism's last gasp within the law of the sea	Michael Samuel Illicit Import: The Artful Incorporation of the Defence (Emergency) Regulations, 1945 into the Israeli Legal System		Yuan Yi Zhu The Chinese Habeas Corpus: Legal Transfers and the Limits of the Common Law World

3:30-4:00 Afternoon Tea

4:00-5:30 Session H

	Stream: The Maritime World in Legal History Panel: Maritime IV	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Positioning Intellectual Property in North America: Crossing Boundaries from the British to US Empires	Stream: General Panel: The Third Empire: Africa	Stream: General Panel: Institutions and the Commercial World of Empire
1:00 AM Sydney 3:00 AM Auckland 8:00 AM Vancouver 9:00 AM Calgary 11:00 AM Boston	Chair: Anjuli Webster Tomas Nilson 'To be saved from oneself': The Consular Service, the Seaman's Mission and the Welfare of Swedish Seafarers in Foreign Ports, 1925-1935	Chair: Nora Slonimsky 'None Must Be Sent For Sale to America': Copies, Rights, and Maps of Subjecthood in the British Empire, 1755-1776	Chair: Narcisse Kaze The Process of Kingdom/Fondom Formation in Pre-colonial Bamenda Grassfields of Cameroon c. 1800-1884	Chair: Shaunnagh Dorsett Christian Buset Arbitration and Empire: Bengal and British North America, 1763-1775

11:00 AM South Bend	Tim Soriano	Kara W Swanson	Paulien Broens	Scott Carrière
11:00 AM Toronto	‘His Majesty’s Ponds’: Salt and British Rule in the Turks and Caicos Islands, 1760-1770	Race, Inventors, and Citizens along the Republic of Texas Border, 1836-1846	The imposed masculinization of legal power with the Akan in Ghana under British colonial force, c. 1890 – 1920	Newfoundland’s Customary Constitutionalism in the Age of Company Colonialism
4:00 PM Lagos
5:00 PM Yaoundé	Stefan Vogenauer	Haris A Durrani	Yolanda Osondu	Lyndsay Campbell
8:30 PM New Delhi	Creating a Legal Order in a Colonial Setting: the Dutch Colonies in Guyana	The Recent History of Free Space: Patents, Satellites, and the Idea of Empire in the Global Cold War	The ‘Price’ of War: The Punishment of Female Profiteers in Colonial Southern Nigeria (1941-1947)	Constituting a Colonial Crisis: Newfoundland in the 1830s

Day 3 – 1 July

9:00-10:30 Session I

	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Commerce, Empire and Intellectual Property	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Law and Justice in the British Empire	Stream: General Panel: Legal Thought and Constitutionalism	Stream: General Panel: The Social and Political Histories of Forensic Science in the British Empire
1:00 AM Vancouver	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair: Mitra Shirafi
4:00 AM Boston	Michael Birnhack The Emergence of a Brand: A Case of Jaffa Oranges from Mandate Palestine	Nishant Gokhale A Bhil Chief in Company India: Legal Fragments of the Life of Goomany Naik (c. 1818–1824)	Nik Kedar The Russian Imperial Roots of Israeli Civicism and Rule of Law	Catherine Evans Investigating Incendiarism in Nineteenth-Century Canada
4:00 AM Ottawa
4:00 AM Santiago	Fady Aoun	Oliver Skinner	Avarim Shahal	Heather Wolfram
9:00 AM Lagos	Tobacco Empires as Agents of Empire: Reconceptualising Corporate Empires within Sovereign Empires	“It’s about tikanga”: Māori, British law, and Wairarapa	Empirically Tested: Multinational Empires and Zionist Constitutional Thought	Cairo’s Medico-Legal laboratory during the Inter-War Period
11:00 AM Tel Aviv
1:30 PM New Delhi

5:30 PM Adelaide 6:00 PM Sydney 8:00 PM Auckland		Moana in the nineteenth century
	Isabella Alexander Copyright, Nature and Empire in Cook's Voyages	Pooja Parmar Andrew Paull: A lawyer without a ticket and an interpreter of justice	Assaf Likhovski Jurisprudence in the British Empire: India, Egypt and Palestine Compared	Binyamin Blum The Ceylon Police Footprint Bureau: The Untold History of a Forgotten Forensic Science

10:30-11:00 Morning Tea

11:00 – 12:30 Session J – panel applications

	Stream: Indigeneity, Law and Empire Panel: Colonial Governance, Courts & Indigenous Subjects	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Disrupting Colonial Narratives	Stream: General Panel: Trans-imperial Connections	Stream: General Panel: Lawful Space and Place
3:00 AM Vancouver	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:
6:00 AM Boston 6:00 AM Hartford 6:00 AM Santiago 6:00 AM Toronto	Nikita Sonavane Informants of colonial criminality: The legacy of Criminal Tribes Act in contemporary India	Jessica Lake 'This is a legal joke that finds no parallel outside of the British Empire': The sexual slander of women in the 19 th century common law world	Angela Smith Aviation Empire: a legal history of friendship and flying at the end of empire	Erin Braatz Constructing Colonial Space
6:00 West Lafayette 11:00 AM Lagos 3:30 PM New Delhi	David Plater (with Andy Alexander) 'Virtually Outlaws in their Native Land which they have never Alienated or	Andrea Wallace "Another Perspective" of Digital Surrogates in the Public Domain: what Pornhub and the Classic	Lama El Sharief The Role of Passports in Connecting Spaces and Expanding Empires	Matteo Nicolini Manufacturing Imperial Spatialities: The British Integrated Legal Geography of Land and Sea

8:00 PM Sydney 10:00 PM Dunedin	Forfeited': the 'Incompetence' of Aboriginal Witnesses in 19th Century Colonial Australia	Nudes project can tell us about the empire of copyright
	Jacqueline Briggs Networks of Colonial Governance: Department of Indian Affairs legal aid, 1870 to 1970	Nandi Bhatia Literary-Cultural Surveillance in British India and Beyond	Sarah Winter Writes Crossing Borders: Transimperial Habeas Corpus and the History of Human Rights	David Smith The Early Modern Tax Haven: Smuggling, Law and Global Business in Eighteenth-century Jersey and Guernsey

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch

1:30-3:00 Session K

	Stream: Intellectual Property in Empire Panel: Regulating ideas and texts: origins, transplants and translations	Stream: General Panel: Writing Constitutions	Stream: General Panel: Forms of State Control	Stream: General Title: Workers in Empire
12:30 AM Auckland	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:	Chair: Diane Kirkby
5:30 AM Vancouver 8:30 AM Cambridge, Mass 8:30 AM New Haven 8:30 AM Santiago	Myra Tawfik Mapping the mutations and permutations of British copyright law throughout the Empire: The case of Lower Canada (1791-1832)	Alex Martinborough Settler Constitution-Writing on the Edges of Empire	Zak Leonard Thought Policing and Border Control in Colonial India	Diamond Ashiagbor Colonial labour practice, colonial legal form, and the origins of contemporary labour law
8:30 AM Toronto 3:30 PM Haifa 3:30 Tel Aviv	Tomas Gomez-Arostegui Patent Validity Litigation in 18th Century England and the Right to a Jury Trial	Rohit De and Ornit Shani From Founding to Assembling: Towards a New	Lee Godden Pandemics, Law and Movement Controls at the Edges of Empire	Philip Girard On the edge of many empires: employers' liability in Quebec's industrial age, 1880-1930

6:00 PM New Delhi 10:30 PM Sydney		History of India's Constitution Making
	Kathy Bowrey Patents, Aboriginal Invention & Settler Colonial Myth-making	Shaunnagh Dorsett Reshaping Empire: The Eastern Commission of Inquiry, Curial Reform and Drafting Ceylon's 1833 Charter of Justice	Filippo Sposini Legal Power and Medical Authority: The Global History of Lunacy Certificates (1850s-1910s)

3:00 – grab and coffee and come back

3:10-4:40 Session L

	Stream: General	Stream: General	Stream: General	Stream: General
	Panel: Books and Circulations of Knowledge	Panel: Israeli regimes of citizenship, immigration, enemies and space in comparative perspectives	Panel: Race in Empire II	Panel: War and Intervention
12:10 AM Sydney	Chair: Shaunnagh Dorsett	Chair:	Chair:	Chair:
2:10 AM Auckland 7:10 AM Vancouver 7:10 AM Seattle 9:10 AM Chicago 10:10 AM New York	Serge Dauchy Interconnecting legal Empires in the Americas through the circulation of legal books (17 th -18 th centuries)	Alexandre (Sandy) Kedar The Israeli Supreme Court and Appeal Committee in the OPT in Comparison with the U.S. Supreme Court and the Indian Claims Commission	Jack Jin Gary Lee Anxieties of Whiteness: Evidence, Race, and the Prosecution of the Malayan "Sexual Perversion" Cases, 1938-1940	Connor McBain Debt and Civilisation: Protection of Subjects Abroad and The British Government's changing legal justification(s) for military intervention, 1848-1914
10:10 AM Santiago 2:10 PM Rome	Airton Ribeiro da Silva Jr Comparing colonial law libraries: the circulation of	Smadar Ben-Natan The Dual Penal Empire: Emergency	Mary Anne Vallianatos	Mandi Rollinson The Ties That Bind: A Case Study of the United Nations

4:10 PM Kigali 5:10 PM Tel Aviv 7:40 PM New Delhi	normative knowledge in Iberian empires	Powers and Military Courts in Palestine/Israel and Beyond	Canada's Anti-Asian laws: A History of Exception, Race, and Empire, 1885-1949	and Colonial Rule in 1950's Rwanda
	Sergio Peña Neira Influence of English law and international law of English learned scholars in Chile: Andres Bello	Yael Berda Citizenship as a mobility regime: How colonial emergency laws made citizenship in the aftermath of the British Empire in Israel/Palestine and India	David Doyle Unlawful Carnal Knowledge in the Irish Free State, 1922-33	Eric Covey Postcolonial Nigerian Governments, Cold War Empires, and Mercenary Force at the United Nations, 1979 to 1989

4:45 Close